March 28, 2012, glittering dinner at the home of the new Italian Ambassador Claudio Bisognero, lots of promotion served in an elegant setting by one of the Washington's A-list diplomats.

Elle Magazine teamed with Armani for the "Women in D.C. Power List". "We have six milion readers, and these are women they should know about" said Elle's editor-in-chief, Robbie Myers. "we are interested in the way power works when woman have it, how they got it and how they feel about it".
